

ROS COMMON.

REPORT upon the PROPOSED MUNICIPAL BOUNDARY of the BOROUGH of ROSCOMMON.

THE Corporation of this Borough became extinct at the period of the Union ; ANCIENT LIMITS. since which time no Municipal authority has been exercised in the place. The ancient Limits of the Borough are not defined by Charter, but are reported, upon the best information of the old Inhabitants, to extend some distance into the Country to the Northward of the Town, where bushes are still pointed out as the original boundary marks.

Roscommon is the County and Assize Town of Roscommon, and a large Market DESCRIPTION OF THE TOWN.
is held weekly. It contains several substantial public Buildings, recently erected, such as Court House, Gaol, &c. A few new Buildings are now in course of construction, but generally the Town does not appear to be improving much, or likely to extend to any great amount.

By the Census of 1831 the Population of Roscommon is rated at 3,306 ; it has Population.
probably not much increased since that period.

The Town is not watched or lighted, and no Local Rates have ever been Local Rates.
collected from the Inhabitants for any purpose.

The Streets are kept in repair by County Presentment. County Rates.

I recommend the following Municipal Boundary for Roscommon, which will embrace the whole Town, and exclude all superfluous rural District :—

Commencing at the North End of Castle Street, at the Bridge (1) over the PROPOSED BOUNDARY.
Stream flowing from the Lough ; thence along the said Stream to the Bridge across it, in the Lanesborough Road, near the Pound (2) ; thence continuing along the course of the same Stream to the Bridge, in the Athlone Road (3) ; thence following the Stream again to the Bridge (4) in the Old Road to Ballinasloe ; thence in a straight Line, Westerly, to the Old Corporation
Bush (5), near the Cross Lanes South of the Barracks ; thence in a straight Line to a Dwelling House (6), in rear of the Barracks, the Property of Mr.
Blakeney, and now in the occupation of Mr. Higgins, about One hundred and twenty Yards West of the Barracks ; thence in a straight Line Northerly to the Entrance Gate (7) in the Fuerty Road, leading to the Lough, at a Point where the Boundary between the Townlands of Ardnanagh and the Lough abuts on the said Fuerty Road ; thence in a straight Line to the North-west Turret of the Old Castle (8) ; and thence in a straight Line to the Point first described.

H. Pooley.

ROSCOMMON

From Local Survey

The Ancient Boundary from the Report of the Municipal Commissioners & Local Inquiry

REFERENCES

- Ancient Boundary Green
- Proposed Boundary Purple
- Townland Boundaries Brown

Scale - Four Inches to One Statute Mile

Drawn by G. C. ...

0 200 400 600 800 1000

1 Mile

1850 Feet

Eng. A. & J. P. ...

Thos. A. Sarcum Lieut. R. Eng.

Printed by ...